

LBHS athletes sign National Letters of Intent

(USA Water Polo)

Quinn Winter

"I am very excited to have the opportunity to play water polo at the college level. I feel very lucky that I will be able to continue to compete at a very high level with new teammates from around the world."

(Steve Fiorindo)

Cutter Clawson

"It has been a dream my whole life to play at the next level; I'm excited to finally be able to pursue it."

(Paul Matheson)

Kylee Matheson

"Besides the amazing competition being at a D1 school in the Pac 12, I'm excited about being part of a team that is so driven for success, both athletically and academically."

(Matt Szabo)

Claire Kelly

"I'm really excited for the high level of play and to go to college knowing that I'll be with a good group of girls that share the same interests as me."

(Kristie Marie)

Cori Cansdale

"I'm really excited to be on a large team and get to know girls from all over the world. I can't wait to represent A&M against some of the best schools in the nation!"

(Tom Stewart)

Cici Stewart

"I am very excited to have a built-in group of friends through the water polo team when I arrive at school."

(Steve Nash)

Bryn Gioffredi

"I'm very excited to continue to play water polo in college and to advance to the next level. Continuing to play water polo in college has always been a dream of mine."

(Sheri Morgan)

Kolton Freeman

"I'm excited to play with teammates recruited in my class. We have 9 recruits for my class of 2023, so we will have really developed going into my junior and senior year. Also, I've never played in the cold, and I don't use batting gloves, so that'll be interesting."

(Steve Nash)

Evie Laptin

"I am really excited to play at the next level of water polo; water polo has been a really big part of my high school experience, and being able to continue that through college, I feel very lucky."
